- 3) Where the Disciplinary Authority is satisfied that in the interest of the security of the State, it is not expedient to hold an enquiry in the manner provided.

In cases under category (1), the disciplinary authority has to peruse the judgement of the criminal court and take into account the gravity of the misconduct committed, its impact on the administration and other extenuating circumstances or redeeming features. Once it is concluded that the employee's conduct is blameworthy and punishable, it may impose such penalty as it is competent to do after giving an opportunity to the employee of making representation on the penalty proposed to be imposed. The penalty should neither be grossly excessive, nor out of all proportion to the offence committed or one not warranted by the facts and circumstances of the case.

Regarding category(2), detailed guidelines have been laid down in this regard. Inquiry should not be dispensed with lightly or arbitrarily or out of ulterior motives or merely in order to avoid the holding of an inquiry or because the FFD's case is weak and is, therefore, bound to fail. Further, it is a constitutional obligation that the disciplinary authority should record in writing (preferably in the order itself) the reasons for its satisfaction that it was not reasonably practicable to hold the inquiry. The reason, though brief, should not be vague or not just a repetition of the language of the relevant rule.
